From Saturday April 16. to Tuesday April 19 1737.

Petersbourgh, March 15.

IT is said that M. Keyserling, the Czarina's Minister to the King of Poland, who is at present here, has wrote to Dresden to obtain Leave for the Russian Ambassadors, nominated to treat with those of the Ottoman Porte, to assemble at Kami-nieck, and to desire that proper Passports may be sent them for that Purpose. Count Ostein it is said has received a Courier from Vienna, with Orders to acquaint the Czarina, that the Emperour his Master entirely approved the Plan of military Operations this Court had communicated to him ; but People here are ignorant of the Particulars of the said Plan.

Stockholm, April 5. His Swedish Majesty has lately been pleased to promote several of his Officers in the military Way, and among other Preferments of that Kind, Count Adam Horn was Yesterday made Corporal of the Trabants, which Post gives him the Rank immediately after Lieutenant-Colonels in the Army.

Whitehall, April 8, 1737.

Whereas an anonymous Letter, directed to Miss Kitty Jones, was taken up on Saturday the 26th of March last, about Ten a-Clock in the Forenoon, in the Court-Yard before the House of Mr. John Edwards, near the Dock-Yard at Depsford in Kent, Uncle to the said Miss Jones, and with whom she dwells, requiring her, among other Things, to tell her said Uncle to lay Ten Guineas in a Place in the Yard before his Door, or in Failure thereof, threatening to set Fire to his House, and burn the Family in their Beds ; His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in so heinous a Crime, is pleased to promise his most gracious Pardon to any one of them who shall discover his Accomplice or Accomplices, so as he she or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

HARRINGTON.

And as a farther Encouragement, I the said John Edwards, Messenger to his Majesty's Dock Yard in Depsford, do hereby promise to pay the Sum of Ten Guineas upon the Conviction of such Offender or Offenders, to such Person or Persons as shall be entitled thereto.

John Edwards.

Whitehall, March 31, 1737.

Whereas Information has been given on Oath, That on Tuesday the 15th Day of this Instant March, between the Hours of Seven and Eight of the Clock in the Evening, Jonathan Linthwait, of the Borough of Leiceſter, in the County of Leiceſter, Bramier, being on Horseback in his Way from Melton Mowbray to the said Borough, was assaulted in a Place called Thrumaston Lane, in the Parish of Belgrade, in the said County, by three Persons on Horseback, one of whom seized him, and carrying him out of the Road into a Close adjoining to the said Highway, robbed him of the Sum of Twenty four Shillings, or thereabouts, his Horse Whip, and one Linnen Handkerchief, and afterwards bound him Hand and Foot ; and while the said Jonathan Linthwait lay bound, the said three Highwaymen robbed and bound several other Persons near that Place, and took from them in Goods and Money to the Value of Fourteen Pounds : For the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the said Robberies, his Majesty is pleased to promise his most gracious Pardon to any one of them, who shall discover his Accomplice or Accomplices, so as he or they may be apprehended, and convicted thereof.

HOLLES NEWCASTLE.

Description of the Persons above-mentioned.

One of them appeared to be about Five Foot Eleven Inches high, a jolly Man, of a ruddy Complexion, wore his own Hair, had on a light Drab Coat, double-breasted, with white Metal Buttons ; another about Five Foot Eight Inches high, pitted with the Small Pox, and wore a brown Wig, and a brown Coat and red Waistcoat ; and the third, a tall Man in a shabby Dress, with long black Hair and a yellowish or fallow Complexion. The Horses on which they rode, were a Sorrel, a dark Chestnut, and a Bay Horse, with a Star and a Snip on his Nose, and a short switch Tail, and each of them a black List down their Back.
